

January 2002

Senator Clinton takes part in Rome technology briefing

SENATOR CLINTON VISITS AFRL ROME SITE — U.S. Sen. Hillary Rodham Clinton visited the Air Force Research Laboratory Information Directorate at Rome Jan. 14 for a briefing on the laboratory's research and development efforts in support of information assurance technology that can protect computers and other communications systems from terrorism. Joining Clinton were state Assemblywoman RoAnn M. Destito; and Raymond P. Urtz, director of the Information Directorate. (Air Force photograph by Albert P. Santacrocce)